GEN. HARTS DENIES "STRONG ARM" CHARGES

"STRONG ARM" CHARGES

WASHINGTON, April 6—Charges that "strong armed," blood-thirsty police companies sweet the streets of Parls, making wholesale arrests of American soldiers, were denied today before a bouse war investigating committee, by Brig.—Gen. William W. Harts, former commander of American troops in the Parls district.

Gen. Harts, who was ordered home from Germany, where he is chief of staff of the American forces, to testify before the committee, also denied that prisoners were "put through a third degree to obtain confessions of crime," or that they were "beaten, threatened and inhumanely treated.

Representative Bland, Republican. Indiana, who questioned the witness, read reports of specific cases in which officers were said to have assaulted soldiers and asked whether Gen. Harts took action in those cases.

Gen. Harts said he always followed recommendations of imprectors.

"That's the trouble." Mr. Bland returned. "Hard-bolled, strong-armed practices were used constantly and no one was punished."

"Men with police experience were desired for work in eleaning Paris." the general said. "The Thirtieth marines were doing police work when I arrived. They were unsatisfactory and were removed Later, companies were recruited from wounded men, not fit for active duty."

"The human element was left out of these companies." Mr. Bland declared. "They were a strong-armed, blood-thirsty bunch who were ordered to be hard boiled."

"I object to the words bloody-thirsty and strong armed," said Gen. Harts epresentative Bland charged that soldiers "were put through the third decree." but Gen, Harts said he had not seen informed of such conditions.

"That's why you are before this committee," Bland replied. "I have always contended you didn't know conditions, but you will be informed."

BANKERS TO ARGUE THREE-CORNERED DEBATE

Continuing the good work of the local chapter of the American Institute of Banking along educational lines, the subject for discussion at the meeting Wednesday night in the clubrooms at the Union and Planters bank will be a three-cornered one on "The Advantages and Defects of the Three Systems of Banking."

Representing the federal reserve system will be V. S. Fuqua, of the local branch. J. A. Deuton, cashier of the First National, will represent those outrating under the pational charters, while R. J. McEiroy, of the Union and Planters, will speak for those operating under state charters.

Gilmer P. Winston, who is serving as instructor or mentor for this month, expects the program to be of unusual interest to the members.

THREE FIRES GIVE FIREMEN TROUBLE

Three fires Monday afternoon and night which did $2,000 damage to three homes, proved troublesome to the firemen on account of high wind. TEN ORDINANCES TO AMEND TRAFFIC RULES

A series of short ordinances were passed on first reading Tucsday by the city commission, each of them revealing some sectin of former ordinances pegulating traffic on the streets. They are being repealed so that there may be no conflict with the new regulations for traffic embraced in a general ordinance passed a week ago. Among other matters, the speed limit, which was furnerly fixed at eight to 12 miles at hour in the downton a section, either for street cars or motor vehicle. for street cars or motor vehicles, is increased to 20 miles. New regulations us to the use of auto dealers' tags and succial test lags are also made in another ordinance which was passed on first reading. Tuesday.
